NEW QUESTION: 3

A firm has total assets of 5,320, net sales of 8,395, average receivables of 894, current assets of 2,393 and a current ratio of 1.2. Its average receivables collection period equals

- A. 41.73 days
- B. 38.87 days
- C. 29.92 days
- D. 23.19 days

Answer: B

Explanation:

Explanation/Reference:

Explanation:

This is measured by two ratios in slightly different ways:

a. Receivables turnover ratio = Net annual sales/average receivables

b. Average receivables collection period = $365/\text{receivables turnover}$

In this case, receivables turnover = $8,395/894 = 9.39$.

Therefore, average receivables collection period

$365/9.39 = 38.87$ days. Notice that the collection period is measured in "days."

NEW QUESTION: 4

Programs and projects in your company, one of the largest banks in the world, are required to submit metrics as to their individual progress each month. To simplify the collection and reporting process, you held interviews with members of the Portfolio Review Board to see their areas of greatest interest and also with program and project managers to determine how difficult it would be to collect the data. You then selected 10 possible metrics to the Board, with a goal that five would be regularly reported. It is important to note that:

- A. If components have interdependencies with other components, their metrics should be reported as a group
- B. Quantitative metrics are preferable
- C. The value is realized when components are used
- D. Customer satisfaction is the most important goal

Answer: C
